

5-year impact summary

As the only national association dedicated solely to advancing campus-based civic and community engagement, Campus Compact helps more than 1,000 member colleges and universities build strong communities while educating a new generation of responsible leaders. The collective impact of this work on campus and in the community is profound.

Organization Growth

	2000	2005
Campus Compact membership	689	975

Effects of Engagement

Impact on the Community

	2000	2005
Total value of service contributed to communities by students at Campus Compact member schools	$279 million	$5.6 billion

Impact on Academics

	2000	2005
Percentage of member schools that offer service-learning courses (courses that incorporate service into the curriculum)	79%	98%

Campus Support for Community Work

Institutional Support Structures

	2000	2005
Institutions that have established one or more community partnerships	68%	98%
Institutions with community service/service-learning offices to coordinate campus-based service work	71%	86%
Institutions that consider service in awarding scholarships	44%	63%

Service Initiatives

	2000	2003*
Institutions with service projects focused on...
Housing/homelessness	79%	84%
The environment	77%	84%
Hunger	72%	82%
Voting	36%	51%

* Latest year for which these figures are available.

All figures reflect activity on Campus Compact member campuses.

Source: Campus Compact annual member survey statistics, 2000–2005.

For complete results of recent surveys, see www.compact.org/about/statistics.

Find out more

www.compact.org